Sent Girl Gold Sandwich.

The bureau of redemption at the turned out to be two $20 gold pieces after It appears that a young gentleman in Brooklyn, being moved by love of a young lady to present her with a Christ-mas present, was much disturbed as to what he could give her. At last he de cided that, as she had everything in the world that could be bought, he would present her in a very original way with two $20 gold pieces. Knowing that she would refuse the money if tendered in a raw fashion, it seemed to him to be a happy plan to send the gold in the shape of a sandwich. He procured two pieces of bread, laid some meat between the bread and then under the meat placed the gold. He put the sandwiches up in a fancy box and sent them to the lady. scientific means, gently but cer-On Christmas Day he called, and was met with the cold eye of score. His timid query as to whether his little remembrance had been re eived was anthat she had thrown the sandwich into the stove. Thereupon the two spent half an hour raking over the ashes, their differences being entirely recon ciled in their eager hunt for the gold pieces. Finally they found the two dis-colored lumps of gold. The young gentleman sent them on to the bureau of of redemption with his story. The bureau experts soon saw that the in-triesic value of the gold pieces was not altered, and, so, two new golden double eagles were dispatched to him in a neat little case.

A case came to light that for persistent and numerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobiek, of Colusa, Calif, writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumarism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility.
